Dick Whittington

Welcome to Dick Whittington, a well-loved tale, the 20th pantomime presented by the current Players since their debut production of Sleeping Beauty in 1991. Two of that year's cast appear in this production: David Adams, a founder member, appeared as the Sergeant-at-Arms and Nicola Barnett, our Dick Whittington, was a young, very young, chorus member.

Charles Hazelton was Lord Chamberlain in that first pantomime and would surely have appeared in this year's production had he not been taken from us. It would please him no end to know that his daughter, daughter-in-law and granddaughters will be on stage in this production. We dedicate this pantomime to his memory, with the proceeds of our raffle to be donated to Demelza House Children's Hospice, a charity chosen by Charles' family.

Anna Anderson makes her directorial debut assisted by producer Wendy Barnett.

There will be a raffle at each performance in aid of:

Demelza House Children's Hospice

Children's hospices support children and young people who are expected to die before reaching adulthood. Demelza provides hospice care for over 600 children with life-limiting illnesses and their families across South East London, Kent and East Sussex. Demelza Kent is an 8-bedded hospice in Sittingbourne; Demelza South East London is a new 6-bedded hospice in Eltham. Most of the work involves offering short break(respite) care to children, young people and their families. The Demelza Community team provides a hospice-at-home service with specialist paediatric nurses going into the family home to provide care, crisis intervention, an on-call service and respite.
